France -- Germany: To be blunt about it, Hal, we'd better bury the hatchet in someone else instead of ourselves. I propose a simple about-face and attempt to stop the growing A-H menace. (Let's face it, he needs only three more centers.)

France -- Italy: Now listen, Margaret, if you don't stop this unsuccessful attack on my country A-H is going to win by taking your centers. So how about a little international cooperation to prevent the Spread of Red (pieces, that is).

Italy -- A-H: I'd get my meat-hooks off of Venice before Papa's got to slap. Your boarding-house reach is all out of place. You made a deal with me about Tyrolia and Adriatic Soa. I kept my part of the bargain, you did not keep yours. You are not a trustworthy ally. Move out and restore your much-tarnished reputation.

Russia -- Germany: Dear Germany: the only reward you'll get from France and Italy is a knife in the back. Consider carefully; that if you drive into Russia both your rear and South flanks are open. Also consider the French Army Burgundy. That's probably only the beginning of your reward.

GM Note -- As announced in DPBA #30, the Foreign Trade Payoff will be changed, effective with the SPRING, 1906 season, so that the maximum bonus to be paid by the GM to any single player for any single transaction in any single season is 10$. In other words, the players may still send each other as much Foreign Trade as they wish, but the GM will pay the 1/3 bonus only on the first 30$ sent. We know it is a bit late for this rule, but it may still help the game a bit. Economic III will have this limitation in the rules from the start.
